

These are the Notes for episode 22 – “Romanian Jews parachuted back into Romania”, of the “History of the Romanian Jews” podcast.

At the beginning of the episode, you’ve listened to the Yiddish song "Zog nit keyn mol" or “Never Say” also called the “Partisan Song”, considered one of the chief anthems of Holocaust survivors and fighters:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Wz-ra7GAhQc>

Romanian-born Palestine Jews before departure to be parachuted into Romania

Romanian-born Palestine Jews who were parachuted into Romania at a Tel-Aviv reunion

1944 Yugoslav partisans with Jewish parachutists from Palestine

Group of Jewish paratroopers. From right to left, top row: Reuven Dafni, Zadok Doron, Abba Berdichev. Bottom row: Sara Braverman, Arie Fichman, Haviva Reik

Jewish parachutists under British command including Haviva Reik (center), who was sent into Slovakia

Palestinian Jewish parachutists gather in Bucharest to celebrate the release of Arie Lupesko and Yehuda Gukowsky from captivity. Seated from left to right are Arie Lupesko, Yitzhak Ben-Efraim, Yeshayahu Trachtenberg, Baruch Kamin, and Yehuda Gukowsky. Standing behind is Dov (Berger) Harari

Shaikha Dan and Dov Berger before parachute jump

Shaikha Dan, Mano Ben Ephraim and Yona Rosen after the jump, disguised as refugees

Dov Harari Berger

Yona Rosenfeld Rozen

Yitzhak (Mano) Ben-Efraim

Arieh Lupesko

Abba Berdichev

The graves of the seven Jewish Parachutists of Mandate Palestine in Mount Herzl in Jerusalem. At the grave site are three graves of paratroopers and four empty graves for the paratroopers that were killed in the death camps

Bibliography:

Author	Title	Year Published	Language
Amos Ettinger	Blind Jump - The Story of Shaike Dan	1992	English
Cluj University	Studia Judaica VI	1997	English
Slomo Leibovici Lais	Evreimea Botosaneana	2005	Romanian
Mircea Tanase	Eroi ai Nimanui	2010	Romanian
Judith Tydor Baumel-Schwartz	Perfect Heroes	2010	English

For questions or comments please contact us at historyofromanianjews@gmail.com